

IN THE
Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE
Fifth Appellate District

F045681 People v. Ortega

The convictions of each of the substantive offenses and the true findings on each of the allegations and enhancements attached thereto are affirmed. The sentence imposed is vacated and the matter is remanded to the superior court with instructions to, within 30 days after the remittitur in this appeal is filed, hold a hearing and afford appellant the opportunity to discharge his retained counsel and obtain a reasonable continuance to retain new defense counsel or seek court appointment of counsel, should appellant be financially eligible for such appointment or exercise his Faretta rights. Thereafter, as appropriate, the court shall resentence appellant. In the alternative, the appellant may withdraw his request for new counsel and thereafter the superior court shall reinstate the sentence. In either case, the court shall file new abstracts of judgment, serving all appropriate parties. Harris, Acting P.J.
